. CAVE-AGED CHEESE .
WOOKEY
HOLE

AGED CLOTHBOUND CHEESE

Smooth, buttery mouthfeel and perfect salt balance. On the palate, the initial acidity evolves to fruity notes, and finishes on a savory note with mild earthy hints.

WOOKEY HOLE - WOOKEY COOKIE RECIPE

INGREDIENTS

1 ½ cups Wookey Hole Cheese
#27738 8 / 200 G

1 cup Unsalted Butter

1/3 cup Granulated Sugar

1/4 tsp of Vanilla

1 ½ tbsp Orange Zest

1 tsp Sea Salt

1 ½ cup of All Purpose Flour

61% Dark Chocolate

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Finely grate Wookey Hole and orange zest into a bowl.
2. Incorporate butter, sugar, vanilla extract, and a pinch of sea salt into the mixture.
3. Gradually fold in the flour, stirring at a low speed, until you achieve a dough that's cohesive yet slightly crumbly.
4. Gently bring the dough together to create a single dough ball. If necessary, knead it briefly to combine, but avoid over-kneading.
5. Shape the dough into a uniform log measuring about 6-7 inches in length. Encase it tightly in plastic wrap, twisting the ends to seal. Chill in the refrigerator for a minimum of 90 minutes. Alternatively, you can refrigerate it for up to 5 days or freeze for up to 2 months.
6. When ready to bake, set oven to 350°F and line baking trays with parchment paper.
7. Bake the cookie slices for 12-15 minutes. They should have a slight golden hue around the edges while retaining a lighter color on top. A longer bake will make the cookies crunchier, whereas a shorter bake will keep them softer.
8. Once baked, set the cookies aside on a cooling rack until they're completely cooled.
9. Roughly chop the chocolate into smaller bits, then melt using either a double boiler or microwave. If using a microwave, begin with a 1-minute interval, followed by 15-second intervals, ensuring you stir the chocolate after each round.
10. Quarter-dip each cookie into the melted chocolate and garnish the chocolate-covered section with a sprinkle of Wookey Hole cheese and some additional orange zest to boost flavor.
11. Allow the chocolate on the cookies to solidify for around 30 minutes before enjoying them.

A TASTE OF PLACE

Cravero Parmigiano Reggiano

Giorgio Cravero's family has selected and aged Parmigiano Reggiano in Bra, Italy since 1855. Just off the main drag in the town of Bra (home to Slow Food's biennial Cheese festival) lie the halls of Cravero. At twenty feet high, the aging rooms hold five thousand wheels of Parmigiano Reggiano! Cravero's wheels rest on pine and are turned more frequently than the average Parmesan, resulting in a softer, less cakey texture.

The milk for Cravero Parmigiano Reggiano comes exclusively from one dairy, Caseificio Sociale San Pietro, located in the mountains of Benedello di Pavullo. One of the smallest producers in the Parmigiano Consorzio, they produce only ten wheels each day from the raw milk of cows who graze exclusively on the mountain pastures. The diverse mountain ground cover gives these cheeses a distinct terroir, a flavor that can't be replicated. These wheels of Parmigiano Reggiano receive the rare seal Prodotto di Montagna, a designation reserved for exquisite, high-altitude cheeses. This Parmigiano is unlike any other - it is smooth, sweet, and nutty - a perfect finishing cheese!

GUSTO E TRADIZIONE

Pio Tosini

Cured in the town of Langhirano, Italy, Pio Tosini Prosciutto di Parma bears the honorable mark of the Consorzio del Prosciutto di Parma, signifying its exceptional quality and rigorous curing processes. The family-owned and operated Pio Tosini company is one of the most credible and sought-after producers of Prosciutto di Parma and has been in operation since 1905. Just four ingredients go into this ham: Italian pork, salt, air, and time. At Pio Tosini, a minimum curing time of 20 months allows for slow and even salt penetration, assuring the delicate sweetness of the hams. Each ham is trimmed, deboned by hand, and personally selected. Pio Tosini is known for remaining true to the quality and authenticity of the Parma curing tradition.
